Journal of European Competition Law & Practice Editors: Paul Nihoul, Thomas Lübbig, Gianni De Stefano and Marcus Pollard

Consultant Editor: Philip Lowe

Journal of European Competition Law & Practice is a peer-reviewed journal dedicated to the practice of competition law in Europe.

Published bi-monthly, and primarily focused on EU competition law, coverage includes the full range of substantive competition law topics as well as practice-related matters such as litigation and enforcement.

The journal takes a broad approach, setting competition law in the context of EU law, and looking at its application to, and impact on, related areas of law and industry sectors.

It combines the highest standards of legal analysis with concise presentation and practice-relevance.

The journal is specifically designed for EU Competition lawyers both in private practice and working in industry and the corporate sector.

It is likely also to become an essential source of reference for domestic lawyers in EU countries, non-competition-specialist lawyers, members of the judiciary, officials in enforcement agencies and regulatory bodies, and academics specialising in competition /antitrust.

Oxford University Press is pleased to offer CLA members a 10% discount on the Journal of European Competition Law & Practice. To claim this discount please contact our Journals Customer Service team at jnls.cust.serv@oup.com and quote the promotion code JV120901 when ordering your subscription. This offer is not valid with any other offers and is only valid on orders placed direct with Oxford University Press.

Read more at www.jeclap.oxfordjournals.org