Dear Member

Evening Meeting at Matrix Chambers: Wednesday 20 November, 2019 at 6.00 pm

The CLA will be holding an evening meeting on Wednesday 20 November at Matrix Chambers, Griffin Building, Grays Inn Rd, Holborn, London WC1R 5LN. Registration will open at 6pm and the talk will begin at 6.15pm.

Tim Owen QC has kindly agreed to speak on the following subject:

“The right to silence in competition law investigations”

Tim Owen QC is a barrister at Matrix Chambers with a practice that spans the fields of fraud/regulatory, criminal, public, human rights, media and information, extradition/MLA, sports, asset recovery and police law. In recent years, he has acted both in the UK and Hong Kong in a wide range of business crime cases (at both trial and appellate level) involving bribery/corruption, corporate criminal liability, money laundering, market abuse, sanctions offences, cartel offences, frauds of all kinds, insider dealing and other regulatory offences. He has appeared in many of the most significant public and human rights law cases over the past three decades covering the fields of criminal law, national security, prisons, terrorism, policing, fair trial rights, freedom of expression/political protest, data protection and privacy, mental health, inquests and regulatory/disciplinary law. He co-authored the chapter on “Individual criminal liability: the cartel offence” in UK Competition Law: the new framework (OUP, 2016). He sits as a Deputy High Court Judge and is an Acting Judge of the Cayman Islands Grand Court.

The session will be followed by refreshments. There is no additional charge for members. There will be a charge for non-members: £50, or £35 (full time academic/public sector employees), or £10 (students, trainees, pupil barristers).

Online registration will close on Tuesday 19 November. Tickets will not be issued for this event.

With kind regards

Sharon Horwitz
