LIDC Webinar

Chinese FRAND Jurisprudence

The LIDC will be holding a joint lunchtime webinar with the CLA on Wednesday 23 October at 1:00 pm (CET) / midday (UK).

The approach of the Chinese courts to FRAND issues

As FRAND jurisprudence continues to develop rapidly in the UK, and the first FRAND cases are heard in the UPC, Xu Jing will provide an update on how the Chinese courts are approaching these issues and discuss the strategic importance of China as a FRAND venue.

SPEAKER

Xu Jing is a Partner at King & Wood Mallesons in Beijing and specialises in intellectual property litigation. Her experience includes managing litigation matters related to infringements of patent, trademark and copyright, as well as antitrust and unfair competition.

Ms. Xu has extensive experience in representing a diverse range of companies in IP infringement litigation, IP-related antitrust lawsuits, and administrative court appeals in China. As a lead and trial counsel, she has handled lawsuits in China for patent wars between well-known multinational and domestic companies. She has advised famous US, Chinese, Japanese and German companies in SEP-related matters and also represented them in the licensing negotiations as well as lawsuits. She has helped resolve high-stakes IP disputes for global technology leaders as well as companies in luxury, telecommunications, software, banking, internet, chemical engineering, machinery, consumer electronics, electric equipment, medical devices and automobile industries.

Many of Ms. Xu's cases were selected as "representative cases" by PRC Courts or received attention from industries for her strong and innovative representation.
